Location

This location provides an exceptional part of Kampala for various types of business. Enjoy a prestigious address which lies in close proximity to a good selection of the world's embassy buildings and the bustling central business district. Not content with being a top-notch place to do business, these offices also sit in an area rich in options for relaxation and leisure. The Ham Towers mall is just a 19 minute walk away, making it a superb candidate for a bit of lunchtime shopping. These premises are walking distance from a colorful array of eating places, the nearest of which is Biz Restaurant, little more than a 16 minute stroll away and something of a favorite with those in the know. For companies and individuals that are likely to arrange frequent trips abroad, the airport is only 42 km away, a travel time of approximately 9 minutes depending on traffic conditions. Demonstrating very reasonable rental rates, numerous travel options and a well respected postcode in a single package, it would be nearly impossible to come up with a better proposition for business in Kampala.
