Location

These executive suites inhabit a strategic location in Nairobi, that's within a stones throw of some of the city's best coffee shops and dining places and has convenient access to multiple transit options. Members of your team that are keen on some retail therapy during their time away from the desk will be happy to hear that the Sarit centre shopping mall is no more than 800m on foot, as are numerous other leisure and relaxation venues. It is also close to some great dining options - approximately 180 metres from the door is Anghiti, a well-liked establishment for winding down with some food at the end of the day. For businesses that regularly need to supply accommodation for their staff and guests, these offices are ideal. There is a good selection of local lodgings, by far the handiest is the Jacaranda hotel, which can be walked to from here in approx 13 minutes. Jomo Kenyatta International Airport is just 21 km from the door using the Mombasa Road/A 104 which equates to 16 minutes on the road or slightly longer during rush hour. With such a convenient position, this serviced office hub would be an enticing possibility when it comes to searching for workspace in Nairobi, and should definitely be included when weighing up which would be the best new office space for you and your team.
